

The background of the cover is a composite image. On the left, a large cargo ship is docked, its deck filled with stacks of colorful shipping containers in red, blue, and green. The ship's white superstructure and cranes are visible. On the right, a city skyline at night is shown, with numerous skyscrapers illuminated by lights. A white semi-truck is parked in the foreground on the right, and a small airplane is visible in the sky. The overall scene is a vibrant representation of global trade and logistics.
